

CRIME

PROGRAM TITLE: NEWS 3 @ noon
TYPE: News
DATE OF BROADCAST: October 17, 2008
DESCRIPTION: Volunteers are cleaning up two neighborhoods near Lake Mead and Decatur. They are painting curbs, fire hydrants, light poles – it's all to make the neighborhood a safer environment.

PROGRAM TITLE: NEWS 3 @ noon
TYPE: News
DATE OF BROADCAST: November 10, 2008
DESCRIPTION: Police are reaching out to teachers and parents to sound the alert about a drug used by local teenagers called Salvia Divinorum. It's a plant that is readily available in several forms on the internet and right here in the valley. It can cause hallucinations and drug enforcement says the main users are under 21 years old.

PROGRAM TITLE: NEWS 3 @ noon
TYPE: News
DATE OF BROADCAST: November 11, 2008
DESCRIPTION: The national sleep foundation says that drowsy driving is just as dangerous as drunk driving. One in three drivers has admitted to falling asleep behind the wheel. Most drowsy driving crashes happen between midnight and 6am.

PROGRAM TITLE: NEWS 3 @ 5p
TYPE: News
DATE OF BROADCAST: November 12, 2008
DESCRIPTION: Instead of going to jail, a sentencing option for many drug offenders is the adult "drug court" program. It's expanded to 3 days a week and not only rehabilitates addicts, but cuts down on jail costs as well.

PROGRAM TITLE: NEWS 3 @ 5p
TYPE: News
DATE OF BROADCAST: November 13, 2008
DESCRIPTION: A man robbed the Fitzgerald's casino this morning then hails a cab as his getaway. Metro says he's 35 to 45 years old, and got away with around 53 hundred dollars in cash.

PROGRAM TITLE: NEWS 3 @ 4p
TYPE: News
DATE OF BROADCAST: November 14, 2008
DESCRIPTION: A follow up on statewide efforts to fight auto theft and insurance fraud. The report says that creating a new government "auto theft authority" program could reduce both crime and you're your insurance costs..

PROGRAM TITLE: News 3 @ 4
TYPE: News
DATE OF BROADCAST: December 19, 2008
DESCRIPTION: A two year old boy was killed after being backed over by a car. Police believe the father was driving the car, and didn't see the boy behind him. When he realized it, it was too late. He and the boy's mother took him to North Vista hospital where he was pronounced dead.
